

Class 3 IFT-Paramedic Treatment Protocol 3216

Anticoagulant

Page 1 of 1

This protocol is utilized when the patient is being treated with anticoagulant medications.

- A. Perform Inter-Facility Transport Assessment (IFTA) Procedures Patient Care Protocol 9204 and follow the proper protocol for medical management based on clinical presentation.
- B. Monitor the anticoagulant medication as prescribed by the sending physician:
- C. Monitor the anticoagulant medication for any of the following side effects:
 1. Nose Bleed/uncontrolled bleeding
 2. Severe abdominal pain
 3. Obvious Blood in urine
 4. Obvious Blood in stool
 5. Obvious vomiting of blood
 6. Sudden severe back pain

- D. If any of the above side effects occur: discontinue medication and consult MCP

